

KELLY LIBRARY

Read. Learn. Dream. Discover.

Help the kids by:

Reading to the class.

Choose books.

Read to individual students.

Check out, file and repair books.

Help with special events.

Hours

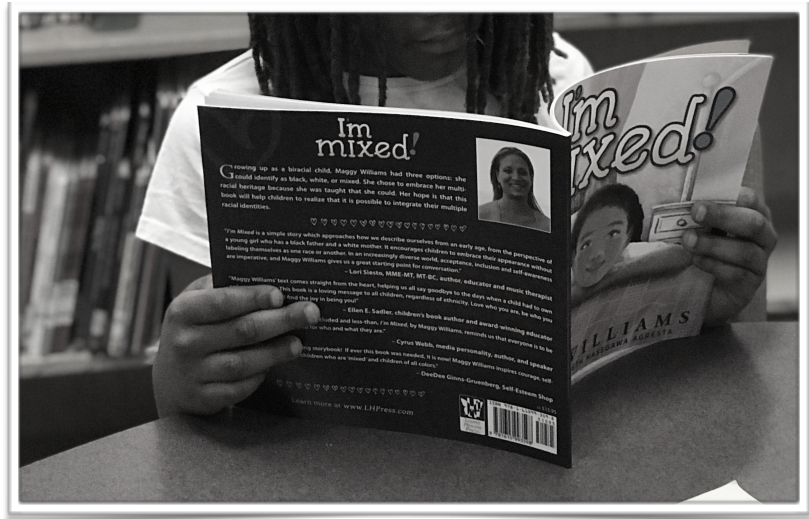

We currently staff the library Monday through Thursday, 9.30 to 12.30. We can see 4 classes each morning.

With more volunteers, we can offer more hours and serve more students.

Without us there is no library.

In 2015, a group of volunteers from the community, led by Penny Colgan-Davis, worked hard to reopen the school library which had been closed due to budget cuts.

Volunteers have cleaned out the space, weeded out damaged and outdated books, purchased new books, organized special events, and most importantly provide an opportunity for students and staff to interact with books in a safe space.

Our Mission: John B. Kelly School Library Volunteers support and enrich the educational experience of the community – students, teachers, staff and parents.
